Dear Mr. Moe:

Admiral Turner has asked me to thank you for your letter of April 28th, and for your invitation for him to address the Harvard Law School Forum this fall. We apologize for taking so long to get back to you, but we were trying to juggle the Director's long-range commitments enough so that we could fit in a trip to Cambridge. Unfortunately, his schedule is already so crowded for the rest of the year that it is just impossible to take on any additional speaking appearances.

The Admiral appreciates your thinking of him and we will keep the Forum in mind should a future trip materialize to your area.

Sincerely,

Herbert E. Hetu
Director of Public Affairs
